

for Revd. Christopher Hancock

How Can It Be?

Words: Nigel Williams

Music: Helen Williams

Upper Voices

1. How can it be, The mo-ther of my Lord should come to me?

I ought to fast and pray, wake And trim my lamp till day - break, Or meek - ly bow my head and bend the knee.

Men's Voices

2. How can it be, The sin - ner that re - pent fills heaven with glee?

I thought my proud pro - cess - ion Beat a pub - li - can's con - fess - ion But

Je - sus' words would plain - ly dis - a - gree.

All Voices

3. So shall it be! My Sa - viour's love so cost - ly yet so free!

It's not from my de - ser - ving But out of grate - ful ser - ving Of the Lord who's al - ways call - ing out to me.