

Mary's Whys

Words: Sarah Lutton

Music: Helen Williams

solo

1. "Why me?" She asked of Ga-bri-el, — "For I am just a si-mple girl. What role is this, that you fore-tell To bear God's Son, E - mma-nu - el?

tutti

2. "Will I keep Jo-seph by my side? — Who else will take me as his bride? If I do what my Lord has asked, will I find cour-age for this task?

3. "Why can't I have a pro-per bed — On which to lay my Je-su's head? What have these stran-gers come to see And why from He-rod must we flee?

4. "What heart-break this? I mourn and cry _____ and watch them mock and cru-ci-

"What heart - break this? I cry and watch them cru - ci - fy My son, whose death_ u - pon the cross Is not just mine but this world's loss."

fy My son, whose death_____ is mine and this world's loss."

with organ

5. Yet Ma-ry's que-stions were dispelled_ By trust in God and Christ her child.Through si-mple faith was God made man; At Ma-ry's 'Yes' the Church be - gan.

As Ma-ry ma-gni - fied the Lord, re - joi - ce to hear His

6. As Ma-ry ma - gni - fied the Lord So we re - joi - ce to hear His word. His mer - cy sure, His peo - ple raised for word. His might be known, His mer - cy sure, His peo - ple raised for e - ver - more. For e - ver - more.

e - ver - more. For e - ver - more.